

COMMUNITY READING BUDDIES SUMMER 2018

The Community Reading Buddies program brings middle and high school volunteer Mentors together with young children at child development centers (CDCs) in Oakland. The teen Mentors work with preschool and elementary school aged "buddies," reading stories together and animating educational activities to encourage literacy and learning.

The 2018 program will run from June 11th to August 3rd.

All CRB Mentors must:

- Be at least an incoming seventh grader in the fall of 2018
- Attend a mandatory volunteer training
- Submit the online application for CRB 2018
- Submit a signed Parental Permission Form (this form)
- Commit to work a minimum of twice per week for three weeks
- Be able to work responsibly with children, staff and peers

Returning Mentors from previous years frequently become part of the Leadership Team. Lead Mentors help plan the day's activities in advance and organize the other Mentors. In addition to the Mentor requirements above, CRB Lead Mentors must:

RECOMMENDED DONATION: $95 PER STUDENT

Although CRB is a volunteer program, it still costs money to run. At each site throughout the program we have Aspire Education Project staff members supervising the mentors. Even more hours are spent planning and coordinating the program, reaching out to volunteers, planning activities, preparing materials, processing applications, etc.

Aspire Education Project does not have the resources to run this program without donations. If we do not obtain the necessary funding, donations will be returned and the program will not run. We ask that participating families contribute $95 per student. If, however, your family cannot afford the suggested amount, give what you can, and your child is still welcome and encouraged to participate. No volunteers will be turned away.

The suggested donation can be paid by check to Aspire Education Project, or paid online using a credit card on our website, either on the Community Reading Buddies page or the donation page. We are a 501(c)(3) exempt organization, so donations are tax deductible.
